

SURPRISE DRUG TESTING INSTRUCTIONS

1. You are required to call (817-467-9115) for a recorded message each and every day, including weekends and holidays, regardless of when you were last tested since “back-to-back” testing and weekend testing are sometimes required.
2. You will be expected to report to Helping Open People’s Eyes (HOPE) located at 1221 California Lane, Suite 120, Arlington, Texas 76015 for a surprise UA when your phase is announced.
3. Listen to the message completely before hanging up because you may be instructed to report to the probation office.
4. Collection hours are Monday through Friday from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m., Saturday, Sunday and holidays from noon to 5:00 p.m.
5. You are required to present a picture I.D. to the collector before you will be allowed to provide a urine specimen.
6. Should you fail to submit your urine specimen for any reason, you are to report to the U. S. Probation Office no later than 9:00 a.m. the next work day.
7. Immediately notify your U.S. Probation Officer when taking any prescription medications and provide the UA collector with the prescription medication container(s) for verification.
8. Your phase is:            PHASE I                    PHASE II                    PHASE III
