DISTRICT MISSION STATEMENT

We value each individual and their potential to change. As effective agents of that change, we provide excellent service to our clients and the courts, creating a safer community through the fair administration of justice. Our guiding principles are Dedication, Empowerment, Idealism, and Integrity.

DISTRICT SUMMARY

The Northern District of Texas is a learning organization which encourages all staff to use their strengths to explore opportunities for meaningful personal, professional, and organizational growth. We expect and support team members to continue developing throughout their careers. We recognize that individuals have varying talents and passions, and we seek to match roles, responsibilities, and opportunities to individual strengths, while still meeting the mission of the organization. We believe that leadership is a shared responsibility of all team members, and we expect staff at all levels of the organization to lead from where they stand. We encourage creativity and ingenuity in problem solving.

This district is geographically one of the largest in the United States. We are a combined probation and pretrial services district, serving a one hundred-county area, bordering the states of Oklahoma and New Mexico. These counties also extend to approximately ninety miles from the Mexico border. Our headquarters office is in Dallas in the Earle Cabell Federal Building. We also have offices located in the Federal courthouses in Fort Worth, Wichita Falls, Abilene, San Angelo, Lubbock, and Amarillo. Texas is among the most tax-friendly states in the U.S. with residents enjoying no state income tax.

POSITION OVERVIEW

The United States Probation & Pretrial Services Office for the Northern District of Texas has an opening for a Probation Services Technician. The Probation Services Technician will assist with the investigation and supervision of persons charged with and convicted of committing federal crimes by providing administrative support for U.S. Probation Officers. The incumbent will have the opportunity to learn about the criminal justice field and about federal probation and pretrial services functions in the U.S. District Courts.

Job responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Supervising lower risk caseloads of offenders which may include telephonic and electronic communication and in office contacts.
- Assisting officers in performing investigations of all types (e.g., collateral, pretrial, presentence, post sentence, etc.) and learning evidenced-based practices.
- Under the guidance and direction of a probation officer, monitoring offender compliance by making telephone contacts and reviewing written monthly reports.
- Contacting various local law enforcement and regulatory agencies to collect and record information for pretrial, presentence, and collateral investigation reports.
- Conducting law enforcement and other record checks via various automated systems.
- Assisting with the transfer of cases to other districts and/or jurisdictions.
- Maintaining case records as required.
- Conducting same gender urinalysis and maintain chain of custody of urinalysis testing materials. Maintaining records of test results and inform probation officers of test results.
- Participating in and contributing to ongoing training programs.
- Generating standard reports from databases and computerized systems, and data entry.
- Receiving, prioritizing, and routing all incoming materials from within the court to appropriate individuals in the office.
- Receiving, screening, and routing incoming and outgoing mail to appropriate persons or offices, and processing mail requiring special handling.
- Maintaining, updating, and tracking paper and electronic files.
- Routing documents to staff and outside agencies.
- Where applicable, assisting officers and non-English speaking offenders/defendants, family members, and witnesses in translating, including translating documents and correspondence.
- Performing other such duties as required.

CLASSIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

Operational court support positions require experience in applying recurring procedures and using specialized terminology that demonstrate the ability to apply a body of rules, regulations, directives, or laws. Although on-the-job training time may vary, experience needed to progress to the full-performance level in these positions is best obtained in a court or related legal field.

To qualify for this CL-23 position, the incumbent must have:

- A high school diploma or equivalent; and

- Two years of progressively responsible clerical, office or other work that indicates the possession of, or the ability to acquire, the particular knowledge and skills needed to perform the duties of the position.

MINIMUM POSITION REQUIREMENTS*

To qualify for this position the applicant must have:

- Demonstrated computer and keyboarding skills.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Excellent organizational skills.
- Ability to deal with multiple demands in a fast-paced environment.
- Ability to work with a wide variety of people with diverse backgrounds.
- A professional demeanor and presence.
- General knowledge of legal terminology, investigative and supervising techniques used in supervising offenders.
- Basic skill in assisting officers in supervising lower-risk offenders in selected cases, assisting with developing appropriate alternatives and sanctions to non-compliant behavior.

Preference

Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with grade point average of 2.9 in a field of academic study, such as criminal justice, criminology, psychology, sociology, human relations, or business or public administration, which provides evidence of the capacity to understand and apply the legal requirements and human relations skills involved in the position.

HOW TO APPLY

Applicants who meet the classification and minimum position requirements should submit:

1. A resume (two-page limit) of their professional experience and educational background.
2. A cover letter (one-page limit) indicating why the position is of interest and why you believe you would be a good fit for this role.
3. A completed application (Federal Judicial Branch Application for Employment, AO 78). If the AO 78 application is not current (5/24 revision in the top left corner of the form), the application for this opportunity will be rejected. Please note the additional documents which may be required to complete the process (listed on page one of the application, AO 78).
4. Two most recent job performance evaluations signed by your supervisor or manager.
5. The names of and contact information for three references.
6. A copy of the most recent transcript.
