

ITEMS NOT TO BRING INTO THE BUREAU OF PRISONS

1. Large number of photographs
2. Magazines or books
3. Private art collection
4. Cellular phone
5. Any pornographic materials
6. Suitcase with alternate wardrobe
7. Credit or debit cards
8. Personal hygiene products
9. Handbags or wallets
10. Illegal drugs or any controlled substances not prescribed to you

ITEMS YOU ARE ALLOWED TO BRING

1. Plain wedding band (no stones or intricate markings)
2. Earrings for females only (no stones) with a declared value of less than $100
3. Medical or orthopedic devices (as necessary)
4. Legal documents
5. Social security card or other forms of identification (driver's license, passport, etc.). These items will be retained in the Inmate Central File until the inmate is released from custody.
6. Religious items approved by the warden as long as they do not present a threat to the security of the institution (religious medallions and chains must have a declared value of less than $100; this applies to males and females)
7. Prescription glasses
8. Cash or other negotiable instruments (travelers checks, money orders)

For information about a specific federal prison, go to www.bop.gov and select Facility Locator from the menu on the far left side. Enter the name of the facility you wish to research and proceed from there.